BASIC DISCIPLINES OF DISCIPLESHIP (3)

Here is a short excerpt about the meaning of “contemplative prayer” from the book, Personal Prayer – A Guide for Receiving the Father’s Love by Fr. Thomas Acklin, OSB and Fr. Boniface Hicks, OSB. This book can be found in our St. Marelo Bookstore.

“While it is clear that infused contemplation is a grace that cannot be earned or deserved, we agree with theologians such as Fr. Reginald Garrigou-Lagrange that it is intended for everyone as a normal part of the path of sanctity. When we speak of contemplation, we follow the kinds of descriptions found in the Catechism of the Catholic Church such as St. Francis de Sales, who wrote, “Contemplation is nothing else than a mental attitude of loving, simple, persistent attention to holy things.” Further, he explained, “prayer is called meditation until it has produced the honey of devotion; after that it changes into contemplation. . . . Thus, as bees draw nectar from the flowers, we meditate to gather the love of God, but, having gathered it, we contemplate God and are attentive to His goodness because of the sweetness that love makes us find in it.” This contemplation is fundamentally a simple gaze of love: “Meditation considers in minute detail and, as it were, item by item the objects that are suitable to excite our love, but contemplation gazes with simplicity and concentration on the object that it loves.”

“At the same time, we recognize that no Christian is an island – we always relate to God both as “I” and as “We.” (CCC 26). Our personal relationship with God takes place in a whole context of corporate prayer.

As we meditate on the events of Holy Week together, be prepared to be launched into contemplative prayer by the grace of God.

Holy Week Blessings, Fr. John

DISCIPLINAS BÁSICAS DEL DISCIPULADO (3)

Aquí hay un breve extracto sobre el significado de "oración contemplativa" del libro, Personal Prayer – A Guide for Receiving the Father's Love by Fr. Thomas Acklin, OSB y el Padre. Bonifacio Hicks, OSB. Este libro se puede encontrar en nuestra Librería St. Marcellino.

"Si bien está claro que la contemplación infusa es una gracia que no se puede ganar ni merecer, estamos de acuerdo con teólogos como el padre Reginald Garrigou-Lagrange en que está destinada a todos como una parte normal del camino de la santidad. Cuando hablamos de contemplación, seguimos los tipos de descripciones que se encuentran en el Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, como San Francisco de Sales, quien escribió: "La contemplación no es más que una actitud mental de atención amorosa, simple y persistente a las cosas santas". explicó, "la oración se llama meditación hasta que ha producido la miel de la devoción; después de eso se transforma en contemplación. Así, como las abejas toman el néctar de las flores, nosotros meditamos para recoger el amor de Dios, pero, habiéndolo recogido, contemplamos a Dios y estamos atentos a su bondad por la dulzura que el amor nos hace encontrar en ella". fundamentalmente una simple mirada de amor: "La meditación considera minuciosamente y, por así decirlo, punto por punto, los objetos que son aptos para excitar nuestro amor, pero la contemplación mira con sencillez y concentración sobre el objeto que ama".

"Al mismo tiempo, reconocemos que ningún cristiano es una isla, siempre nos relacionamos con Dios como "yo" y como "nosotros" (CCC 26). Nuestra relación personal con Dios se lleva a cabo en todo un contexto de oración colectiva.

Mientras meditamos juntos sobre los eventos de la Semana Santa, prepárate para lanzarte a oración contemplativa por la gracia de Dios.

Bendiciones, Padre Juan
