RINCÓN DEL PÁRROCO

MI MISIÓN ES CONSEGUIR EL CIELO Y TAMBIÉN AYUDARTE A CONSEGUIRLO

O lo que sea, me gustaría compartir brevemente con ustedes una verdad que me ayudó a atravesar una experiencia de profundo dolor. A principios de Abril del 2018, manejé desde Madera hasta el Hospital Dominicano en Santa Cruz para visitar a mi querido amigo, Bob Walter. Se estaba recuperando lentamente de una neumonía, de dificultad para tragar y de una infección derivada de una cirugía por lo cual tenía una sonda de alimentación en el estómago. Bob estaba "dormido" cuando llegué allí. Le habían inyectado morfina, pensando que ese día lo podrían transferir a un hospital de convalecencia y querían que estuviera "cómodo." Estuve hablando y orando con tres amigos cercanos a Bob quienes también habían venido a visitarlo. Basado en lo bien que estuvo la noche anterior - sonriendo y compartiendo - todos esperábamos que se recuperara tal como lo había hecho anteriormente. El Doctor cancel su transferencia al hospital de convalecencia después de revisar sus signos vitales. Repentinamente a las 4:45pm Bob, dio su ultimo suspiro. De regreso a Madera, estaba aturdido y sin palabras. Al día siguiente, cada vez que pensé en Bob, se me salían las lagrimas y no podía hablar. Esto me ocurrió durante seis días. Había tenido ya varias experiencias dolorosas en el pasado, cuando falleció mi Abuela, mi Padre, el más joven de mis hermanos y mi Madre., pero nada parecido a esto. No podía entender porque este dolor era tan profundo y duradero. Recibí una tarjeta de pésame de parte de un amigo. Tenía una breve cita de un Santo que recientemente había sido canonizado, Papa San Juan XXIII. El escribió, "Nuestros muertos están entre los invisibles, no entre los ausentes." esto me tocó el alma. Incluso había predicado sobre esta verdad en funerales usando una cita diferente, "aquellos que mueren en gracia no van más lejos de nosotros que dios; y Dios está muy cerca." El Consuelo comenzó a reemplazar mi tristeza. Las últimas palabras de Jesús para nosotros justo antes de que desapareciera de nuestra vista en su Ascensión al cielo fueron, "Sean que siempre estaré con ustedes, hasta el fin del mundo." La Carta a los Hebreos dice, "Estamos rodeados por una nube de testigos." Esa sería la Comunión de los Santos, incluso los Santos en Construcción" en el Purgatorio. Debido a que son invisibles tendemos a olvidar que están ahí. Entonces me doy cuenta en lo que estaba basado mi dolor. Desde que era niño, subconscientemente había mantenido la creencia de que el cielo estaba muy lejos. Miraba al cielo y pensaba que el Cielo estaba mucho más lejos que la cúpula azul que se extiende en la distancia, más allá de lo que puedo ver o imaginar. Ahora veo claramente que esa creencia contradice las Sagradas Escrituras y las enseñanzas de la Iglesia. El cielo es donde esta dios y la Trinidad elige habitar en nuestros corazones cuando estamos en estado de Gracia. Luego puse conscientemente mi creencia errónea de la Verdad y deje de creerla. Ahora agradezco a Dios que mi querido amigo, Bob, y mis seres lobulados fallecidos estén tan cerca, que sigo sintiendo su amor. Todavía extraño velos y anhelo la cara al reencuentro que es parte de nuestro destino en Dios ante la venida del Nuevo Cielo y la Nueva Tierra. Sin embargo, en el momento presente me consuela mucho que estén cerca "entre los invisibles, no entre los ausentes".

!Alabado sea Jesucristo, nuestra Resurrección y nuestra Vida!

Mi querido amigo, Bob Walter

PASTOR'S CORNER

MY MISSION IS TO GET THE HEAVEN AND TO HELP YOU GET THERE TOO!

Or what it is worth, I would like to briefly share with you a truth that helped me through an experience of deep grief. In early April of 2018 I drove from Madera to Dominican Hospital in Santa Cruz to visit a dear friend, Bob Walter. He was making a slow recovery from pneumonia, difficulty swallowing and from an infection arising from a surgery to insert a feeding tube into his stomach. Bob was "asleep" when I got there. They had given him a lot of morphine thinking this was the day they would transfer him to a convalescent hospital and they wanted him to be "comfortable." I was talking and praying with three of Bob's close friends who had also come to visit him. Based on how well he was doing the night before - smiling, laughing, and sharing - we all expected him to recover as he had done so many times before. The doctor cancelled Bob's transfer to the convalescent hospital after checking his vital signs. At 4:45pm Bob suddenly took his last breath. On my drive back to Madera, I was stunned and numb. The next day, every time I thought of Bob, I would tear up and could not talk. This went on for the next six days. I had one though some tearful grief in the past, when my Grandma, my Dad, my youngest Brother and my Mom died, but nothing like this. I couldn't figure out why this grief was so deep and long-lasting. I received a sympathy note from a friend. I had a short quote from a recently canonized saint, St. Pope John XXIII. He wrote, "Our dead are among the invisible, not among the absent." that struck a chord in me. It rang true. I had even preached on that truth at funerals after using a different quote, "those who die in grace, go no further from us than God; and God is very near." Consolation began to replace my sadness. Jesus' last words to us just before He disappeared from our sight in His Ascension into Heaven were, "Know that I am with you always, until the end of the age." The Letter to the Hebrews states, "We are surrounded by a cloud of witnesses." that would be the Communion of Saints, even the saints "under construction" in Purgatory. Because they are invisible we tend to forget that they are there. Then it dawned on me what was deepening my grief. From the time I was a child, I had maintained a strong, yet subconscious, belief that Heaven is far, far away. I would look up at the sky and think that Heaven is much further away than the blue dome that stretched way off into the distance, further than I can see or imagine. I now saw clearly that this belief contradicted Sacred Scripture and the teaching of the Church. Heaven is where God is and the Trinity chooses to dwell in our hearts when we are in the state of Grace. I then consciously put my wrong childhood belief into the Light of Truth, and stopped believing it. I now thank God that my dear friend, Bob, and my departed loved ones, are so close, that I continue to feel their love. I still miss seeing them and I long for the face to face reunion that is part of our destiny in God at the coming of the New Heaven and the New Earth. Yet in the present moment I am very consoled that they are close by "among the invisible, not among the absent."

Praised be Jesus Christ, our Resurrection and our Life!

Fr. John W.

My dear friend, Bob Walter
