PASTOR'S CORNER

OUR LADY'S PEACE PLAN. "Saint John Paul II, who has been named the Pope of Fatima, recognized the necessity of our Lady's message for our times when he said that it was more urgent and important for our day than it was in 1917. He added that the popes have given the events of Fatima a special recognition, as its messages were more prophetic than those of any other apparition." (Fatima for Today, p.8,9).

Cultural and political condition of Portugal at the time of the apparitions.

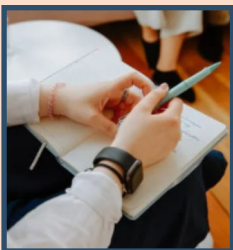

"The Portuguese have a strong Marian devotion. ... In 1646 King John IV and all his people promised their fidelity to the most holy Virgin under her title of the Immaculate Conception. ... From the time of King John IV the Catholic Church enjoyed relative peace in Portugal for about two hundred years. Then Freemasonry entered Portuguese politics. They were against the Christian monarchy as well as the Catholic Church. They wanted to establish a godless humanistic republic totally built upon Masonic ideals, and so they passed a series of anti-Catholic laws. Religious orders were outlawed and many religious were expelled from the country. Churches were sacked, church property was confiscated, convents and monasteries were closed and seminaries were controlled. The public celebration of religious feasts and the public wearing of religious garb were forbidden. Divorce was legalized and religious instruction in all the schools was prohibited. These anti-Catholic measures culminated in the Law of Separation of Church and State that passed on April 20, 1911. The leader of the Freemasons, Alfonso Costa, boasted: "Thanks to this law of separation, in two generations Catholicism will be completely eliminated in Portugal." ... However, what the Masons never figured on was that our Blessed Mother would intervene once again to save Portugal. (ibid. p.11, 12, 13).

Next week we will introduce the 1916 apparitions of the 'Angel of Peace' to the three shepherd children as a preparation for Our Lady's apparitions in 1917.

The Peace the world cannot give Blessings, Fr. John

RINCÓN DEL PÁRROCO

EL PLAN DE PAZ DE NUESTRA SEÑORA. “San Juan Pablo II, quien ha sido nombrado Papá de Fátima, reconoció la necesidad del mensaje de Nuestra Señora para nuestro tiempo cuando dijo que era más urgente e importante para nuestros días que en 1917. Agregó que los papas han dado a los acontecimientos de Fátima un reconocimiento especial, ya que sus mensajes fueron más proféticos que los de cualquier otra aparición”. (Fatima for Today, p.8,9).

Condición cultural y política de Portugal en el momento de las apariciones.

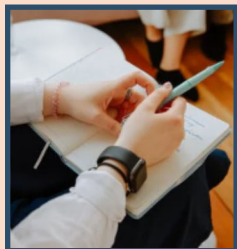

“Los portugueses tienen una fuerte devoción Mariana. ... En 1646 el Rey Juan IV y todo su pueblo prometieron fidelidad a la Santísima Virgen bajo su advocación de Inmaculada Concepción. ... Desde la época del Rey Juan IV, la Iglesia Católica disfrutó de una relativa paz en Portugal durante unos doscientos años. Entonces la Francmasonería entró en la política portuguesa. Estaban en contra de la monarquía cristiana, así como de la Iglesia Católica. Querían establecer una república humanista sin Dios totalmente construida sobre los ideales masónicos, por lo que aprobaron una serie de leyes anticatólicas. Las órdenes religiosas fueron proscritas y muchos religiosos fueron expulsados del país. Se saquearon iglesias, se confiscaron bienes eclesiásticos, se cerraron conventos y monasterios y se controlaron los seminarios. Se prohibió la celebración pública de fiestas religiosas y el uso público de atuendos religiosos. Se legalizó el divorcio y se prohibió la instrucción religiosa en todas las escuelas. Estas medidas anticatólicas culminaron con la Ley de Separación de la Iglesia y el Estado que se aprobó el 20 de abril de 1911. El líder de los masones, Alfonso Costa, se jactó: “Gracias a esta ley de separación, en dos generaciones el catolicismo será eliminado por completo. En Portugal.” ... Sin embargo, lo que los masones nunca imaginaron fue que nuestra Santísima Madre intervendría una vez más para salvar a Portugal. (ibíd. p. 11, 12, 13).

La próxima semana presentaremos las apariciones de 1916 del 'Ángel de la Paz' a los tres niños pastores como preparación para las apariciones de Nuestra Señora en 1917.

La Paz que el mundo no puede dar, Bendiciones, Padre John
