FEBRUARY 1, 2015

In 1997, Pope John Paul II instituted a day of prayer for women and men in consecrated life. This celebration is attached to the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2. This feast is also known as Candlemas Day; the day on which candles are blessed symbolizing Christ who is the light of the world. So too, those in consecrated life are called to reflect the light of Jesus Christ to all peoples. The celebration of World Day for Consecrated Life is transferred to the following Sunday in order to highlight the gift of consecrated persons for the whole Church.

PASTOR'S CORNER

"We teach the children to talk to Jesus. This is the most powerful thing we can do for anyone." This is the solution offered by Fr. David O'Connell, a Pastor in L.A. where divorce, drugs, addiction and gang activity are having a devastating effect on families in his parish and school. Most priests and deacons, who preach Sunday after Sunday, and catechists, who teach week after week, tend to presume that those coming to Mass and classes already know how to "talk to Jesus." Yet studies show that personal, honest, frequent conversations with Jesus are rare among Catholics. Most Catholics are settling for much less than Jesus is trying to offer them. Consider what Jesus offered to the ultra religious and arrogant Saul of Tarsus, which transformed him into the humble, zealous and loving St. Paul. It was the gift of Himself: his Mind, his Heart, his Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity! St. Paul could say, "No longer I who live, but Christ lives in me. I still live my human life, but it is a life of faith in the Son of God who loves me and who gave his life for me" (Gal. 2:20). Jesus offers the Gift of Himself to every disciple. But, we must freely respond, often, for the relationship, the friendship, to grow. If you are not already doing so, I exhort you to add this discipline to your lifestyle. At the beginning of each day, soon after you wake up, make the sign of the cross, pray the "Our Father" slowly from your heart. Add a "Hail Mary." Then, enter into at least five minutes of personal conversation with Jesus. I suggest this method. First, tell Jesus how you feel in the present moment. Confide in Him your difficulties and struggles, your need for mercy and help. Listen to Him. Second, add a moment of praise and thanksgiving for the blessings you see in your life. Listen to Jesus. Third, exercise the power of compassion and charity, which God pours into your heart, as you pray for those you care about, for the Church and for the world. Listen to Jesus. Then enter into your day together with Jesus, who chooses to remain with you as Lord, Redeemer, Friend, Shepherd and Bridegroom, of your heart and of your life. If you do this, the glory of God and the joy of the Gospel will shine on your face. Some people may even ask you to explain the reason for the hope they see in you (cf. 1Peter 3:15). Congratulations. You are now an evangelist. Teach others to talk to Jesus. This is the most powerful thing we can do for anyone.

Blessings, Fr. John

RINCÓN DEL PÁRROCO

“Enseñamos a los niños ha hablar con Jesus. Esto es lo mejor que podemos hacer por alguien.” Esta es la solución que el Padre David O’Connell, un Pastor en L.A. en donde el divorcio, las drogas, adicciones y las actividades de las pandillas están teniendo un efecto devastador en las familias de su parroquia y escuela. La mayoría de los sacerdotes y diaconos que predicán Domingo tras Domingo, y las catequistas, que enseñanan semana tras semana, tienden a suponer que los que vienen a Misa y clases ya saben cómo “hablar con Jesus.” Sin embargo estudios demuestran que conversaciones personales, frecuentes y honestas con Jesus son raras entre los católicos. La mayoría de los Católicos se conforman con mucho menos de lo que Jesus trata de ofrecerles. Considere lo que Jesus ofreció al ultra religioso y arrogante Saul de Tarsus, que lo transformó en un San Pablo humilde, celoso y amoroso. ¡Fué el regalo de Sí Mismo: su Mente, su Corazón, su Cuerpo, Sangre, Alma y Divinidad! San Pablo pudo decir, “Ya no soy yo quien vive, sino Cristo vive en mi. Yo todavía vivo mi vida humana, pero es una vida de fe en el Hijo de Dios quien me ama y dió su vida por mí” (Gal. 2:20). Jesus ofrece el don de sí mismo a cada discípulo. Pero, a menudo, debemos responder libremente, por la relación, la amistad, para crecer. Si aún no lo están haciendo, les exhorto a añadir esta disciplina a su vida. Al empezar el día, poco después de despertarse, haga la señal de la cruz, ore el “Padre Nuestro” lentamente desde su corazón. Agregue un “Ave María.” Luego, tenga una conversación personal con Jesus durante al menos cinco minutos. Les sugiero este método. Primero, dígame a Jesus como se siente en ese momento. Confíe en El sus dificultades y luchas, su necesidad de misericordia y ayuda. Escúchelo. Segundo, agregue un momento de alabanza y de acción de gracias por las bendiciones que ve en su vida. Escuche a Jesus. Tercero, ejerza el poder de compasión y caridad, que Dios derrama en su corazón, ya que ora por las personas queridas, por la Iglesia y por el mundo. Escuche a Jesus. Entonces empiece su día junto a Jesus, quien decide permanecer con usted como Señor, Redentor, Amigo, Pastor y Novio, de su corazón y de su vida. Si hace esto, la Gloria de Dios y la alegría del Evangelio brillará en su cara. Incluso algunas personas pueden pedirle que explique la razón de la esperanza que ven en usted (cf. 1Pedro 3:15). Felicidades. Eres un Evangelista. Enseña a otros ha hablar con Jesus. Esto es lo mayor que podemos hacer por alguien.

¡Bendiciones P. John
