PASTOR'S CORNER

KNXT - Local Catholic Television: Has it benefitted you and your family?

The ministerial boundaries of the Diocese of Fresno include eight counties: Merced, Mariposa, Madera, Fresno, Tulare, Kings, Kern and Inyo. For 28 years, the diocesan television station, KNXT-TV (Channel 49), has been broadcasting religious, cultural and educational programs for children, young adults and families, in English, Spanish, Portuguese and Hmong, 24/7.

Deacon Henry J. Medina, who has experience as a Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of several companies, has been charged by Bishop Ochoa to conduct a survey of the people of God in the Fresno Diocese so that a wise and informed assessment can be made with regard to the effectiveness of the ministry of KNXT Catholic Television and Internet services. All the data of the survey needs to be gathered and sent to the Pastoral Center in care of Deacon Henry J. Medina by October 17, 2014. I urge you to participate in this important survey. You may do so online by accessing the following web site: www.dioceseoffresno.org. When the web page comes up just click on the Survey Logo and you will be guided to respond to 6-13 questions. If you prefer to take the survey by telephone, please call, (559) 488 - 7440. Finally, the parish is providing paper copies of the survey in Spanish or English on the tables in the back of the church and at each exit. You may place your completed copy in the offertory collections for October 5th and/or October 12th. Thank you.

Blessings, Fr. John

MARRIAGE, DIVORCE & ANNULMENT

There is no other topic more sensitive to many Catholics than the Church's teachings on marriage and divorce. Why so many rules about marriage? Can I attend a wedding of a Catholic marrying outside the Church? What about Catholics married only civilly? Why does the Church oppose divorce? What is an annulment? Aren't annulments just "Catholic divorce"? Can divorced and remarried Catholics receive Holy Communion? Don't miss this important presentation! Sunday, Oct. 28, 2:30 pm, Parish Center. (behind Marelo bookstore.)
