PASTOR'S CORNER

The Paradox of Divine Mercy. "Pray then like this, Our Father, ...forgive us our debts as we also have forgiven our debtors. ...For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you; but if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses" (Mt. 6:13,14). The resurrection of Jesus and his return to the sinful world that rejected him reveals the infinite Mercy of God. Yes, God so loved the world that He forgave the torture and crucifixion of his only-begotten Son. There is no greater sin than that and there is no greater mercy. Through Jesus Christ, the GIFT of Divine Mercy, forgiveness of sins and eternal life in Heaven are offered to every sinner from Adam and Eve to the end of time. But here's the rub: each of us must use our free will to believe this Good News, repent of our sins and RECEIVE the gift of forgiveness in order for the gift to do us any good. How can I be sure of my repentance and my belief in the Gospel? Jesus gives us the acid test: am I willing to forgive, without limit and from my heart, those fellow human beings who have hurt and offended me? Forgiveness means that I love my "enemy" by letting go of any desire for vengeance. Indeed, in spite of my wounds, I begin praying for my enemy's eternal good and salvation. Forgiveness does not mean that I forego my desire for justice, healing, reparation and reconciliation. Be merciful even as your Heavenly Father is merciful" (Lk.6:36). Seem impossible? More next week.

Lenten Blessings, Fr. John

RINCÓN DEL PÁRROCO

La Paradoja de la Divina Misericordia. “Ora entonces así, Padre Nuestro, ...perdona nuestras deudas así como nosotros perdonamos a nuestros deudores. ...Que si tu perdonas a las ofensas de los hombres también el Padre celestial te las perdonará; en cambio si no perdonas las ofensas de los hombres, tampoco el Padre celestial se las perdonará a ustedes” (Mt. 6:1,14). La resurrección de Jesús y su regreso al mundo pecaminoso que lo rechazó revela la infinita Misericordia de Dios. Sí, tanto amó Dios al mundo que Él perdonó la tortura y la crucifixión de su Hijo único-engendrado. No hay mayor pecado que eso y no hay mayor misericordia. A través de Jesús Cristo, el REGALO de la Divina Misericordia, el perdón de los pecados y la vida eterna en el Cielo se ofrecen a cada pecador desde Adán y Eva hasta el fin del mundo. Pero ahí está el problema: Cada uno de nosotros debe de usar su libre albedrío para creer la Buena Nueva, arrepentámonos de nuestros pecados y RECIBIREMOS el don del perdón a fin de que el don no nos servirá de nada. ¿Cómo puedo estar seguro de mi arrepentimiento y mi creencia en el Evangelio? Jesús nos da la prueba de fuego: ¿Estoy dispuesto a perdonar sin límite y de corazón a esas personas que me han lastimado y ofendido? El perdón significa que puedo amar a mi “enemigo” permitiendo dejar ir cualquier deseo de venganza. De hecho, a pesar de mis heridas, comienzo a rezar por el bien eterno y la salvación de mi enemigo. El perdón no significa renunciar a mi deseo de justicia, de sanación, de reparación y de reconciliación. Sean misericordiosos, como vuestro Padre Celestial es misericordioso” (Lc. 6:36) ¿Parece imposible? Más la próxima semana
