PASTOR'S CORNER

Recently, while on my annual retreat, I was exceedingly blessed, challenged and inspired by reading the new book by Jason Evert, Saint John Paul the Great – His Five Loves. In my 64 years on earth, I rank it as the best book I have read, next to Sacred Scripture itself. Why? Because it encourages me toward the perfection of charity right here, right now. The beauty of holiness becomes authentic, real and compelling through anecdote after anecdote of Saint John Paul's life. Dear parishioners, I long for all of you to have this same blessing. Therefore I exhort you to read this book yourself, and then begin to share it with others. You may find it in the Saint Marello Book Store. At World Youth Day – 2004, in Toronto, Cardinal Arinze of Nigeria exhorted us all to own a copy of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. I now repeat his memorable words to encourage you to get the book on Saint John Paul the Great: "If you don't have a copy of this book, go and sell your shoes and buy one." If you don't yet have your own Catechism, you should sell another pair and get one of those too.

Blessings, Fr. John

RINCÓN DEL PÁRROCO

Mientras esperamos la traducción en Español del nuevo libro por Jason Evert, San Juan Pablo el Grande-sus cinco Amores, (vea el Rincón del Pastor en Ingles), otra vez les exhorto a comprar, usar y compartir el maravilloso libro para un retiro personal 33 Días al Amanecer por el Padre Michael Gaitley, MIC. En adición a la sabiduría y ejemplo de San Louis Marie de Montfort, San Maximiliano Kolbe, y Beata Madre Teresa de Calcuta, contiene las enseñanzas de San Juan Pablo el Grande, a quien se le llama "el Papa Más Mariano." El se concentra en la idea de que el papel de Maria es conducirnos al interior del misterio del amor redentor de Cristo y a la consagración de uno mismo al Padre. Pueden obtener este libro en la Librería San Marelló. En las palabras del Cardinal Arinze de Nigeria. "Si no posee una copia de este libro, vaya y venda sus zapatos y compre uno.
