How to cultivate an Attitude of Gratitude

"As you ramble on through life, with Heaven as your goal, Keep your eye upon the Do-nut, and not upon the Hole!"

As I ramble on through life, my "automatic pilot" tends to put my focus on the "Hole" – on, "what's missing," or on my hurts, whether physical or in my relationships. Without denying the hurts, by God's grace I need to choose to focus on the "Do-nut," – on the really real, on "Emmanuel," on Jesus, on "God-with-us!" This immediately puts my problems in perspective. It vanquishes the negativity of fear and anxiety. This crucial change in focus gives me cause for rejoicing and reasons for gratitude. November makes us think of Thanks Giving. May our practice of the Do-nut proverb help us cultivate the virtue of an attitude of gratitude.

RINCÓN DEL PÁRROCO

"Mientras vaga por la vida, con el cielo como su meta, ¡mantenga su ojo en la Dona, y no en el Agujero vacío!"

"Así como divagas a través de la vida, con el Cielo como tu objetivo, manten un ojo en la realidad y no en lo que esta a tu alrededor!

Así como divago a través de la vida, mi "piloto automatico" tiende a enfocarse en el "Vacío," "Que me falta", es algo que me duele, ya sea físico o en mis relaciones. Sin negar el dolor, por la gracia de Dios tengo que elegir en enfocarme en la verdad real, en "Emmanuel," en Jesús, en "Dios con nosotros! Esto inmediatamente pone mis problemas en perspectiva. Vence a la negatividad de miedo y ansiedad. Este cambio en el enfoque crucial me da motivos para regocijo y motivos de gratitud. Noviembre nos hace pensar en Acción de Gracias. Que nuestra practica del proverbio nos ayude a cultivar la virtud de una actitud de gratitud
