PASTOR'S CORNER

WASHINGTON—The U.S. Supreme Court decision, June 26, interpreting the U.S. Constitution to require all states to license and recognize same-sex “marriage” “is a tragic error that harms the common good and most vulnerable among us,” said Archbishop Joseph E. Kurtz of Louisville, Kentucky, president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB).

The full statement follows:

Regardless of what a narrow majority of the Supreme Court may declare at this moment in history, the nature of the human person and marriage remains unchanged and unchangeable. Just as Roe v. Wade did not settle the question of abortion over forty years ago, Obergefell v. Hodges does not settle the question of marriage today. Neither decision is rooted in the truth, and as a result, both will eventually fail. Today the Court is wrong again. It is profoundly immoral and unjust for the government to declare that two people of the same sex can constitute a marriage.

The unique meaning of marriage as the union of one man and one woman is inscribed in our bodies as male and female. The protection of this meaning is a critical dimension of the “integral ecology” that Pope Francis has called us to promote. Mandating marriage redefinition across the country is a tragic error that harms the common good and most vulnerable among us, especially children. The law has a duty to support every child’s basic right to be raised, where possible, by his or her married mother and father in a stable home.

Jesus Christ, with great love, taught unambiguously that from the beginning marriage is the lifelong union of one man and one woman. As Catholic bishops, we follow our Lord and will continue to teach and to act according to this truth.

I encourage Catholics to move forward with faith, hope, and love: faith in the unchanging truth about marriage, rooted in the immutable nature of the human person and confirmed by divine revelation; hope that these truths will once again prevail in our society, not only by their logic, but by their great beauty and manifest service to the common good; and love for all our neighbors, even those who hate us or would punish us for our faith and moral convictions.

Lastly, I call upon all people of good will to join us in proclaiming the goodness, truth, and beauty of marriage as rightly understood for millennia, and I ask all in positions of power and authority to respect the God-given freedom to seek, live by, and bear witness to the truth.

Blessings, Fr. John

RINCÓN DEL PÁRROCO

WASHINGTON—La decisión del 26 de Junio, de la Corte Suprema de Justicia de los Estados Unidos, que interpreta que la Constitución de los Estados Unidos exige a todos los estados proveer licencias y reconocer el “matrimonio” de personas del mismo sexo es un “error trágico que daña el bien común y a los más vulnerables entre nosotros,” dijo Monseñor Joseph E. Kurtz, Arzobispo de Louisville, Kentucky, y presidente de la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los EE.UU.

La declaración completa a continuación:

Independientemente de lo que una mayoría estrecha de la Corte Suprema puede declarar en este momento en la historia, la naturaleza de la persona humana y el matrimonio permanecen inalterable e inmutable. Así como Roe v. Wade no resolvió el asunto del aborto hace más de cuarenta años, Obergefell v. Hodges no resuelve hoy el asunto del matrimonio. Ninguna decisión se arraiga en la verdad, y como resultado, ambas eventualmente fallarán. Hoy la Corte se ha equivocado nuevamente. Es profundamente inmoral e injusto que el gobierno declare que dos personas del mismo sexo pueden constituir un matrimonio.

El significado único del matrimonio como la unión de un hombre y una mujer está marcado en nuestros cuerpos como hombre y mujer.

La protección de este significado es una dimensión esencial de la "ecología integral" que el Papa Francisco nos ha llamado a promover.

Ordenar la redefinición de matrimonio en todo el país es un error trágico que perjudica el bien común y a los más vulnerables entre nosotros, especialmente a los niños. La ley tiene el deber de apoyar el derecho básico de todo niño a ser criados, donde sea posible, por su madre y padre casados y en un hogar estable.

Jesucristo, con gran amor, enseñó inequívocamente que desde el principio el matrimonio es la unión permanente de un hombre y una mujer. Como obispos católicos, seguimos a nuestro Señor y continuaremos enseñando y actuando de acuerdo con esta verdad.

Exhorto a los católicos a seguir adelante con fe, esperanza y amor: fe en la verdad inmutable sobre el matrimonio, arraigada en la naturaleza inmutable de la persona humana y confirmada por la revelación divina; esperanza de que estas verdades una vez más prevalezcan en nuestra sociedad, no sólo por su lógica, sino por su gran belleza y servicio manifiesto al bien común; y el amor a todos nuestros vecinos, incluso aquellos que nos odian o nos castigarían por nuestra fe y convicciones morales.

Por último, hago un llamado a todas las personas de buena voluntad a unirse a nosotros en la proclamación de la bondad, la verdad y la belleza del matrimonio como se ha entendido correctamente desde hace milenios, y pido a todos en posiciones de poder y autoridad que respeten la libertad dada por Dios a buscar, vivir y dar testimonio de la verdad.

¡Bendiciones! P. John
