HOMOSEXUALITY

We invite you to attend an important presentation on the Catholic Church's teaching on homosexuality. What can parents do if their child "comes out"? Why does the church oppose "gay marriage"? What did Pope Francis mean by his "Who am I to judge?" comment? Come and find out. Sunday, June 29, 2:30 pm, Room 42.

PASTOR'S CORNER

Trinity Sunday - Father's Day - Family Day

1. The family is the gift of God the Creator, his original project, it is the first, natural, living cell of the Church.
2. Family life is based on this mutual self-giving between husband and wife in marriage. The human person was created for self-giving love in God's original project.
3. The family has received the gift of transmitting human life - motherhood and fatherhood.
4. Each child is a gift from God with innate dignity and rights from the very moment of conception.
5. Family life is a daily gift that requires love, patience and sacrifice. It is a gift that binds the different generations in an endless chain of reciprocity and solidarity.
6. The family is thus a most beautiful gift to society, to the whole of humanity. In this first school of the virtues, we learn respect for others, mutual aid and self-restraint.
7. The family itself is a gift for the New Evangelization. The Christian family reveals the presence of the Saviour in the world through prayer in family and the prophetic witness of the faith, generosity and hospitality.

Blessings, Fr. John

RINCÓN DEL PÁRROCO

Domingo de la Santísima Trinidad - Día del Padre - Día de la Familia

1. La Familia es el regalo de Dios el Creador, su proyecto original, es la primera célula natural viva de la Iglesia.
2. La vida familiar esta basada en esta mutua entrega entre marido y mujer en matrimonio. El ser humano ha sido creado para el amor que se entrega en el proyecto original de Dios.
3. La familia ha recibido el don de transmitir la vida humana - la maternidad y la paternidad.
4. Cada niño es un regalo de Dios con dignidad innata y derechos desde el momento de concepción.
5. La vida familiar es un regalo diario que requiere amor, paciencia y sacrificio. Es un regalo que une las diferentes generaciones en una cadena interminable de reciprocidad y solidaridad.
6. La familia es, por lo tanto el regalo más hermoso a la sociedad, a la humanidad entera. En esta primera escuela de las virtudes, aprendemos el respeto por los demás, la ayuda mutua y la auto-moderación.
7. La familia misma es un regalo para la Nueva Evangelización. La familia Cristiana revela la presencia del Salvador en el mundo a través de la oración en familia y el testimonio profético de la fe, la generosidad y la hospitalidad.

Bendiciones P. John

Deseamos que todos los Padres tengan un día lleno de bendiciones
