PASTOR'S CORNER

(Slightly adapted from an internet article found at www.Catholic Online) "By tradition Joachim and Anne are considered to be the names of the parents of Mary, the Mother of God. We have no historical evidence, however, of any elements of their lives, including their names. Any stories about Mary's father and mother come to us through legend and tradition.

We get the oldest story from a document called the Proto-Gospel of James, an apocryphal work written about 150 AD. This document cannot be trusted to be factual, historical, or the Word of God. It says that after years of childlessness, an angel appeared to tell Anne and Joachim that they would have a child. Anne promised to dedicate this child to God (much in the same way that Samuel was dedicated by his mother Hannah -- Anne -- in 1 Kings).

For those who wonder what we can learn from people we know little about and how we can honor them, we must focus on why they are honored by the church. Whatever their names or the facts of their lives, the truth is that it was the parents of Mary who nurtured Mary, taught her, and brought her up to be a virtuous person. It was their teaching, along with God's super abundant grace, that led Mary to respond to God's request with faith, "Let it be done to me according to your will." It was their example of parenting that Mary must have followed as she brought up her own son, Jesus. It was their faith that laid the foundation of courage and strength that allowed her to stand by the cross as her son was crucified and still believe.

Such parents can be examples and models for all parents.

St. Joachim (or San Joaquin) is the patron of the great central valley of California and the patron of the Catholic Church in Madera, the geographical heart of California. St. Anne (or Ann) is the patron saint of Christian mothers and of women in labor. She is also the patron of our parish's mission chapel in Raymond-Knowles in the Sierra foothills.

Let us pray: "Parents of Mary, pray for all parents that they may provide the loving home and faithful teaching that you provided your daughter. Amen"

Blessings, Fr. John

RINCÓN DEL PÁRROCO

(Adaptado ligeramente de un artículo publicado en la internet en la página www.Catholic Online) "Por tradición Joaquín y Ana se considera que son los nombres de los padres de María, la Madre de Dios. Sin embargo no tenemos ninguna evidencia histórica, de cualquier elemento de su vida, incluyendo sus nombres. Cualquier historia sobre el padre y la madre de María llegan a nosotros a través de la leyenda y la tradición.

Sacamos la historia más antigua de un documento llamado Protoevangelio de Santiago, una obra apócrifa escrita alrededor de 150 DC. No se puede confiar que este documento sea verídico, histórico, o la Palabra de Dios. Se dice que después de años de infertilidad, un ángel se les apareció a Ana y a Joaquín para decirles que iban a tener un hijo. Ana prometió dedicar este niño a Dios (de la misma manera que Samuel fué dedicado por su madre Hannah - Ana - en Reyes 1).

Para aquellos que se preguntan ¿qué podemos aprender de las personas que conocemos muy poco? y ¿cómo podemos honrarlos?, debemos concentrarnos en ¿porqué son honrados por la iglesia?. Independientemente de sus nombres o los hechos de sus vidas, la verdad es que fueron los padres de María, quienes la nutrieron, la guiaron, y la hicieron una persona virtuosa. Fue su enseñanza, junto con la súper abundante gracia de Dios, que llevó a María a responder a la petición de Dios con fe, "Hágase en mí según tu voluntad." Fue el ejemplo de crianza de sus padres lo que María debió haber seguido cuando educó a su propio hijo, Jesús. Fue la fe de sus padres lo que sentó las bases de valentía y fuerza que le permitieron a María reposar junto a la cruz cuando su hijo fue crucificado y a pesar de todo todavía cree.

Estos padres pueden ser ejemplos y modelos para todos los padres.

San Joaquín (o St. Joachim) es el patrón del gran valle central de California y el patrono de la Iglesia Católica en Madera, el corazón geográfico de California. Santa Ana (o Ann) es la santa patrona de las madres Cristianas y de las mujeres en trabajo de parto. Es también la patrona de la capilla de la misión de nuestra parroquia en Raymond-Knowles en las laderas de la Sierra.

Oremos: "Padres de María, oremos por todos los padres de familia para que puedan proporcionar el hogar amoroso y la enseñanza en la fe que ustedes le proporcionaron a su hija. Amen

¡Bendiciones! P. John
