PASTOR'S CORNER

Love Is Our Mission: The Family Fully Alive. "Children benefit from your use of NFP as well. They see Mom and Dad involved in an ongoing courtship. Abstinence has a way of sweetening your relationship and deepening your outward affection towards each other. Older children will benefit when you can confidently explain to them the demands of Christian chastity. If you accept the lie that "abstinence is impossible," what will you say to a teen who is expected to avoid premarital sex, masturbation and other sexual vices? If you can't abstain for two weeks, how can you expect them to abstain for 10 or 15 years? Most teens know what their parents think about birth control. When you accept the "need" for contraception, what are you really telling your children? You know all the adult reasons for your decision, but the teen won't appreciate them. The doubt is there: "Was I an accident? Did my parents directly try to prevent my coming into the world?" Might some of the rebellion and anger we see in young people today come from their resentment of a generation that tried to prevent their births? Might some of it have to do with the hypocrisy of parents who request chastity without practicing it? Christian fathers must stand up and show the world what it means to have true sexual and moral self control. For 1900 years every Christian denomination understood the need for this witness. The decadent pagans practiced contraception, abortion and infanticide. Their children saw that the Christians loved and respected God's gift of life. Which attitude do you think attracted them more? Which set of parents do you think was more worthy of reverence and support in old age?" (From "Man to Man," a leaflet published by the Couple to Couple League; www.ccli.org)

Blessings, Fr. John

RINCÓN DEL PÁRROCO

El Amor Es Nuestra Misión: La Familia Plenamente Viva. “También los niños se benefician del uso de la PFN. Ellos ven que mamá y papá están involucrados en un cortejo permanente. La abstinencia tiene una manera de endulzar tu relación y profundizar tu afecto externo el uno hacia el otro. Los niños mayores se beneficiarán cuando les puedas explicar con confianza de las exigencias de la castidad Cristiana. Si aceptas la mentira de que “la abstinencia es imposible”, ¿Qué le dirás a un adolescente que espera evitar las relaciones sexuales prematrimoniales, la masturbación y otros vicios sexuales? Si no te puedes abstener por dos semanas, ¿cómo esperas que ellos se abstengan durante 10 ó 15 años? La mayoría de los adolescentes saben lo que sus padres piensan acerca del control de la natalidad. Cuando aceptas la “necesidad” de la anticoncepción, ¿Qué es lo que realmente le estás diciendo a tus hijos? Tú conoces todas las razones por las que un adulto toma esa decisión, pero el adolescente no puede entenderlo. La duda está ahí: “¿Fuí un accidente? ¿Intentaron mis padres directamente de impedir mi venida al mundo?” ¿Podría ser que algo de la rebelión e ira que vemos en los jóvenes de hoy proviene de su resentimiento de una generación que trató de impedir sus nacimientos? ¿Podría esto tener algo que ver con la hipocresía de los padres que solicitan la castidad sin practicarlo? Los Padres Cristianos deben levantarse y mostrar al mundo lo que significa tener cierto autocontrol sexual y moral. En los años 1900 cada denominación Cristiana entendía la necesidad de este testimonio. Los paganos decadentes practicaron la anticoncepción, el aborto y el infanticidio. Sus hijos vieron que los Cristianos amaban y respetaban el don de la vida de Dios. ¿Qué actitud crees que los atrajo más? ¿Qué conjunto de padres crees tú que era más digno de reverencia y apoyo en la vejez?” (De “Hombre a Hombre,” un folleto publicado por la Liga de Pareja a Pareja; www.celi.org)

¡Bendiciones! P. John
