PASTOR'S CORNER

MAKING THE MOST OF LENT 2019. Let us heed these exhortations from two "golden-tongued" Doctors of the Church: "There are three things, my brethren by which faith stands firm, devotion remains constant, and virtue endures. They are prayer, fasting and mercy. Prayer knocks at the door, fasting obtains, mercy receives. Prayer, mercy and fasting: these three are one, and they give life to each other. Fasting is the soul of prayer, mercy is the lifeblood of fasting. Let no one try to separate them; they cannot be separated. If you have only one of them, or not all together, you have nothing. So, if you pray, fast; if you fast, show mercy; if you want your petition to be heard, hear the petition of others. If you do not close your ears to others, you open God's ear to yourself" (St. Peter Chrysologus).

"Prayer and converse with God is a supreme good: it is a partnership and union with God. ...I do not mean the prayer of outward observance but prayer from the heart, not confined to fixed times or periods but continuous throughout the day and night. ...Our spirit should long for God and call him to mind, so that these works, (fasting and mercy), may be seasoned with the salt of God's love. ...I speak of prayer, not words. It is the longing for God, love too deep for words, a gift not given by man but by God's grace. The apostle Paul says: We do not know how we are to pray but the Spirit himself pleads for us with inexpressible longings. When the Lord gives this kind of prayer to a person, he gives riches that cannot be taken away, heavenly food that satisfies the spirit. One who tastes this food is set on fire with an eternal longing for the Lord: his spirit burns as in a fire of the utmost intensity" (St. John Chrysostom).

FAST & ABSTINENCE

During Lent, the Church asks us to enter into this season of renewal with a spirit of repentance symbolized by fasting and abstinence. Fridays throughout Lent are days of Abstinence, which means that Catholics, beginning on their 14th birthday, abstain from meat on these days. That includes poultry, but not fish and other seafood.

Good Friday is designated as a day of Fast and Abstinence. The obligation to fast commences on the 18th birthday and ceases on the 59th birthday. This means that besides one full meal, the other two meals should not equal a full meal. There should be no snacking. The idea is to eat simply.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

FRIDAY 7 PM

AYUNO Y ABSTINENCIA

Durante la Cuaresma, La Iglesia nos pide que entremos a este periodo de renovación con un espíritu de arrepentimiento simbolizado por medio del ayuno y la abstinencia. Los Viernes durante el periodo de cuaresma son días de abstinencia, lo que quiere decir que los católicos, empezando desde los 14 años, se abstienen de comer carne estos días. Esto incluye cualquier tipo de ave pero no el pescado ni los mariscos.

El Viernes Santo se designa como día de Ayuno y Abstinencia. La obligación de guardar ayuno empieza desde los 18 años hasta los 59 años. Esto quiere decir que además de una comida normal las otras dos comidas no deben ser igual a una comida completa. No se deben comer bocaditos ni antojitos. La idea es de comer sencillamente, no abundantemente.

RINCÓN DEL PÁRROCO

TOMANDO VENTAJA DE LA CUARESMA 2019. Escuchemos estas exhortaciones de dos doctores " de lengua dorada" de la iglesia: "Hay tres cosas, mis hermanos, por las cuales la fe se mantiene firme, la devoción permanece constante, y la virtud perdura. Son la oración, el ayuno y la misericordia. La oración llama a la puerta, el ayuno obtiene, la misericordia recibe. Oración, misericordia y ayuno: éstos son uno, y dan vida el uno al otro. El ayuno es el alma de la oración, la misericordia es la vida del ayuno. Que nadie intente separarlos; no pueden separarse. Si sólo tienes uno de ellos o no todos juntos, no tienes nada. Así que, si oran, ayunan; Si ayunan, muestren misericordia; Si desea que su petición sea escuchada, escuche la petición de otros. Si no cierras el oído a los demás, abres el oído de Dios a ti mismo." (St. Peter Chrysologus.)

"Orar y conversar con Dios es un bien supremo: es una asociación y una unión con Dios. ... No me refiero a la oración de la observancia externa, sino a la oración del corazón, no confinada a tiempos fijos o periodos, sino continuos durante el día y la noche... Nuestro espíritu debe esperar durante mucho tiempo para Dios y llamarlo a la mente, para que estas obras, (ayuno y misericordia), puedan ser sazonadas con la sal del amor de Dios. ... Hablo de oración, no de palabras. Es el anhelo de Dios, el amor demasiado profundo para las palabras, un don no dado por el hombre sino por la gracia de Dios. El apóstol Pablo dice: no sabemos cómo debemos orar, pero el espíritu mismo nos ruega con anhelos inexpresables. Cuando el Señor da este tipo de oración a una persona, da riquezas que no pueden ser quitados, comida celestial que satisface el espíritu. Aquel que sabe esta comida se incendia con un eterno anhelo por el Señor: su espíritu arde como en un fuego de máxima intensidad " (San Juan Crisóstomo).

Bendiciones Cuaresmales, Fr. John
