MISERICORDIA

Dios es misericordia. Eso parece ser el mensaje principal de la lectura del Éxodo. Dios ha visto el sufrimiento de los israelitas y les promete misericordia y rescate. Desde ese momento, Dios es conocido como el Dios de Abraham, Isaac y Jacob.

Pablo llama a sus lectores para que continúen creciendo en la fe. El Dios que rescató a Israel también los rescató a ellos. Por ser beneficiarios de la misericordia de Dios, los cristianos deberán continuar trabajando para poner de su parte y convertirse en un pueblo de Dios cada vez más confiado y lleno de amor.

La segunda parte del Evangelio es una historia hogareña sobre la misericordia de Dios. Desobedeciendo el consejo del dueño de la viña, el viñador pide misericordia—y la muestra—para permitir que la pobre higuera reciba un año más de gracia para producir fruto.
